

We are an innovative company with a long history, whose core process it is to manufacture turned parts, milled parts and assemblies according to technical drawings. Our CNC-machinery is up to par with the latest technology and as a process-oriented company, every single employee contributes to the quality assurance and the improvement of our services. We supply the leading industry worldwide in various sectors. Additional services are technical development, consultation and problem solving, from the idea down to the finished product.